Message from the Editor

As we come to the end of our final high school year, we, the seniors, would like to take the time to express our deep gratitude and appreciation to all the teachers we have had during the past four years. They have managed to put up with us when we felt like doing anything but school work. The faculty has put much time, effort, and patience into their jobs. They have, despite our moods, been able to prepare us to take our place in society. And so, for all of this, and more, we say thanks.

At this time we would also like to say that we have not forgotten the many priests who have made our high school years more enjoyable and enriching. They too have played an important role in helping us to accept the future — the ever changing world that awaits us.

So with all these great people behind us, we can say, "Look out world; there's no stopping us now!"

Dedication

To Our Parents

It is with that same kind of special love you have for us that we dedicate this yearbook to you. So many times we have taken you for granted, but we realize now, more than ever, that you are very special people. Though we will soon be out on our own, we're not afraid, because we know we are not alone. You will be right there at our side to help us in any way you can. Like the roots of a tree planted firmly in the ground, are our hearts planted firmly in yours. This book shows a special part of our high school years, years made possible by you.

We could never begin to tell you how much we love and need you, or how grateful we are for this life you have given us. And in case we haven't told you lately, we love you very much, and always will.

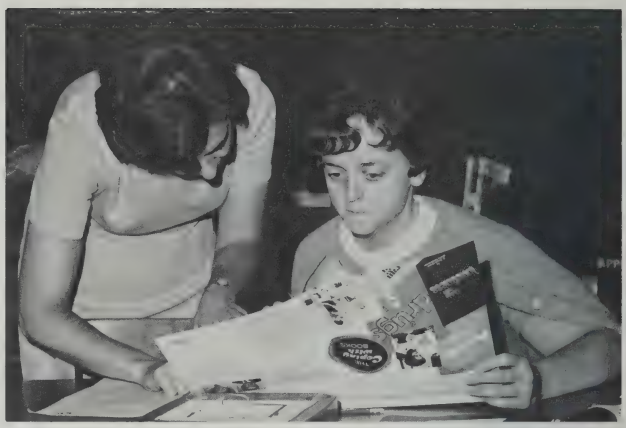
The faculty relax at lunch.

Sr. Roseanna smiles for the cameraman.



I wonder if they would understand better if they read it right-side-up?!

Brother Gene looks happy. Could that envelope possibly represent money?

Getting along with people is important when you run a school.

Sr. Jacqueline points out a few details to Sr. Beatrice Gerard.

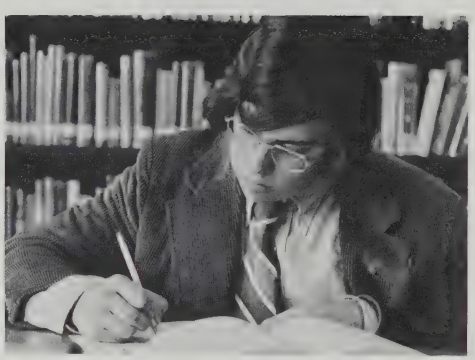
Classes

Religion and Guidance

Ingrid and Chris must have found what they were looking for.

What's going on here?

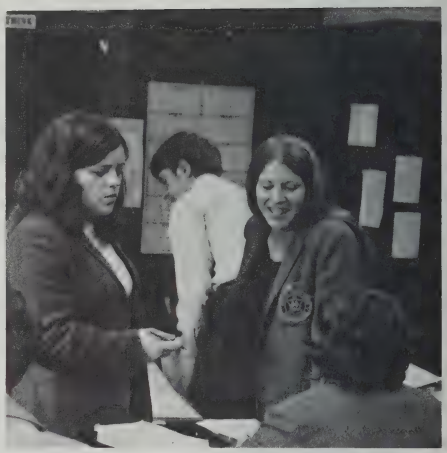
Sr. Victorine and Eddie check over his credits.



Bob is diligently at work on his religion project.

"And what is your opinion of euthanasia?"

"What plans lurk in Chris Young's mind? The shadow knows!"



Marianne, Theresa, and Colette take a few minutes to chat before class begins.

English

How do you spell "homework" — one m or two?

"See, I told you I'd pass!"

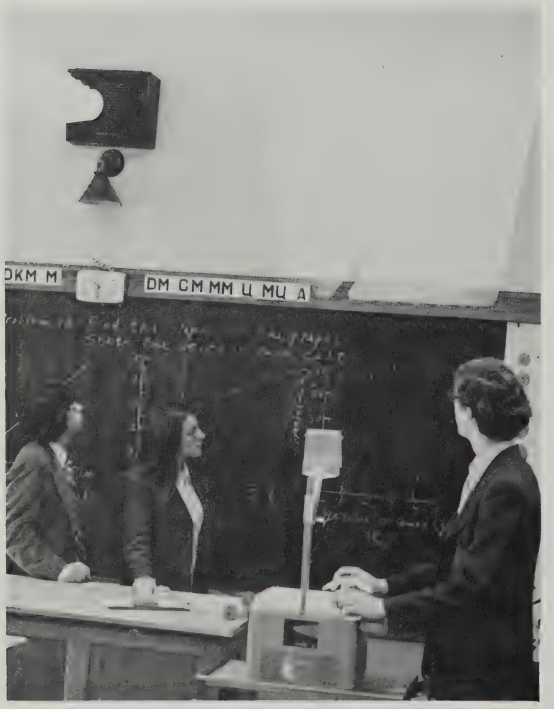
"The walls were gray; the floor was gray; even the people were gray . . ."

"How do you work this thing anyway?"

Is Sr. Pauline cutting class again?

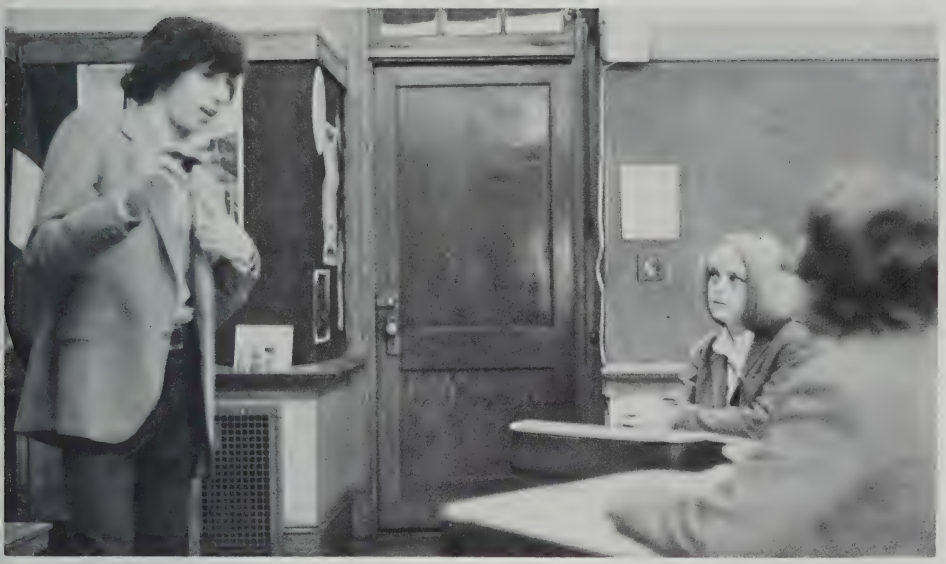
Physics

Mike and Chris help Walter to investigate the theory about falling bodies.

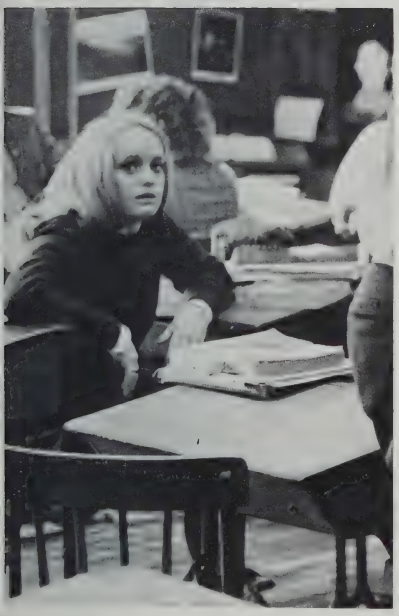


Peggy and Bob don't find Eddie's projection very clear.

All that mental work makes Eddie tired.



Comment ca va?



"Hey, where's Colette?"

Something seems to be puzzling Colette.

Michelle takes time out to do her French homework.

Business

Marianne and Jean sharpen their skills by using the Steno Lab.

Getting ready for the business world requires a lot of work.

Will it be music today, Donna?

Ellen is eager to begin work, while Maureen is busy handing out books.

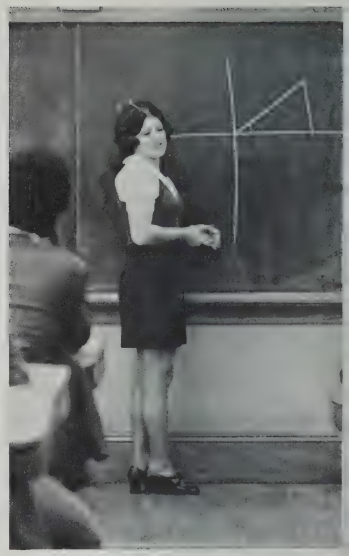
"Want me to help you look?"

Janet is sure it's the right rule but Terri and Marianne doubt it.

Are Jackie and Linda Shipp straightening out or messing up the files????

It's not all that bad, is it?

Chris Young demonstrates the proper use of the compass.



No, it's not supposed to be a square.

Trig

Beware! Children at play.

Terri keeps up with current events.

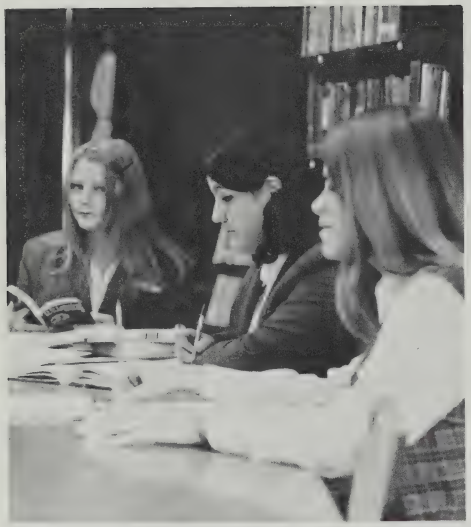
Janet might know the amending process, but she sure can't spell!

Government

Chris explains his "Constitutional rights" to Bob Desharnais, Linda Shipp, and Ellen O'Neil.

Underclassmen

Juniors



Carla has that look in her eyes; Ellen had better watch out.

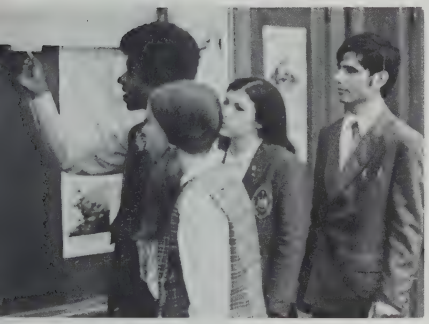
"See, I told you that additional is syllabicated after the i, not the d!"

The juniors are Sr. Victorine's best customers.

Is this a modern version of Hamlet that we behold?

It's test time for the Algebra II students.

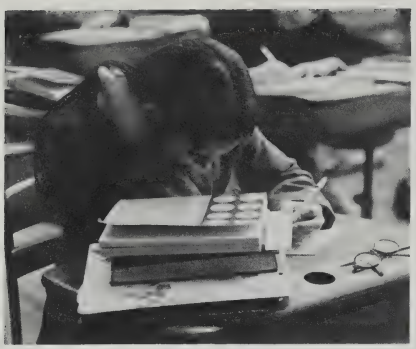
Perhaps the library just doesn't have that book, Tommy.



It's not really as complicated as it looks.

Let's hope it doesn't explode!

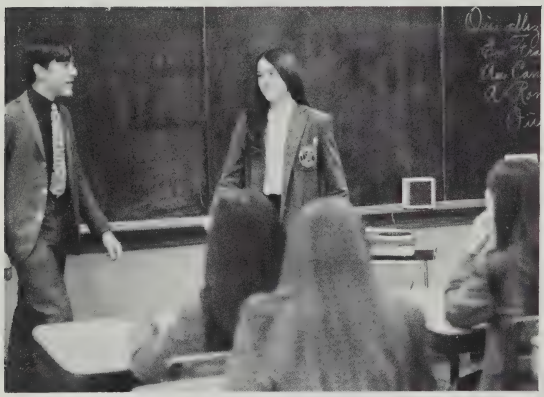
Judging from their smiles, Patty and Fitzy must certainly enjoy their business classes.



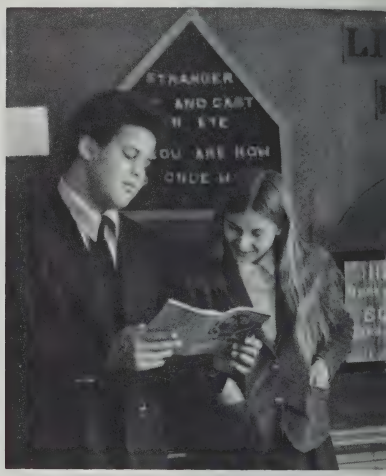
Genius at work!

"Biology has its ups and downs."

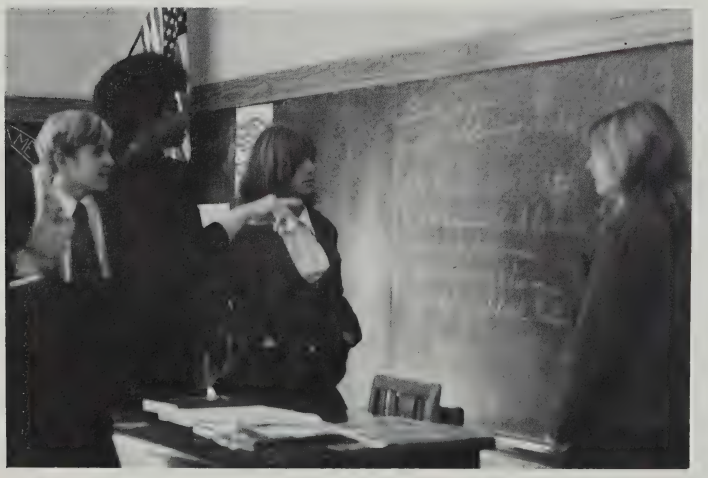
Sophomores



Tom Polifka and Jeanne Gagne act out a dialogue.

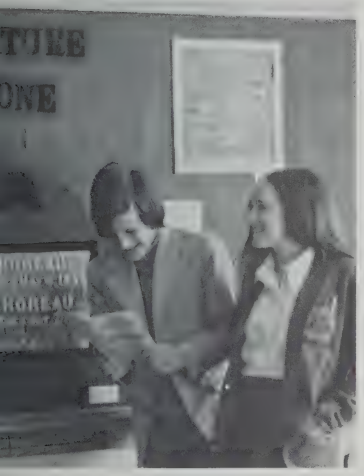


What they didn't write on tombstones in those days!



Sr. Rose Therese points out an error in Cathy's calculations.

Denise knows she is right, but the others aren't so sure.



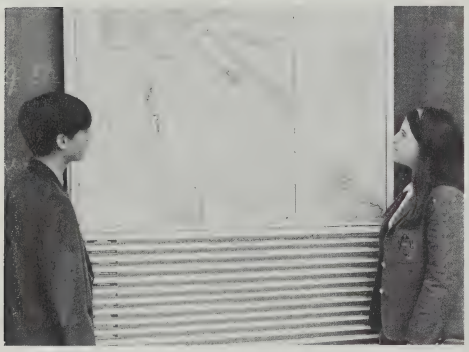
"To see a World in a grain of sand,
And Heaven in a wild flower;
Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand,
And Eternity in an hour."
William Blake

Geometry is not all work and no play.

Sr. Victorine helps Nancy Landry, Stephen Mahoney, and Irma Zylicz fill out the grids of their achievement tests.

That religion project must be due tomorrow!

Freshmen



Stephen Mahoney and Eileen O'Hare look for Cambridge. Who is going to tell them that they have the wrong map?

Mass confusion reigns before class.

Give us a little time; we'll get it straight yet.

Sr. Joan is explaining her marking system to some interested freshmen.

Making collages is serious work.

It's almost 2:25!

Sr. Rose Therese makes sure Sean has the right page.

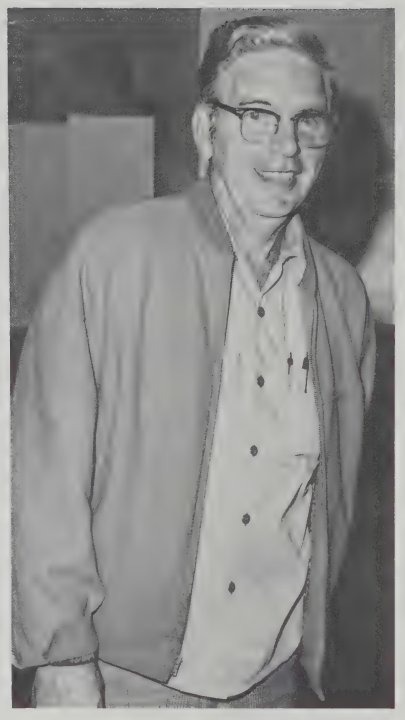
Friends

Mrs. Gallant, school secretary, is always on the go.

"You broke it; I'll fix it" is Hector Ouellette's moto.

"Junior health card? Why I always thought you were a sophomore," declares Mrs. Sylvia Doolin, school nurse.

"Now you see it; after 12:00, you won't" is probably what Mrs. Munroe is thinking.



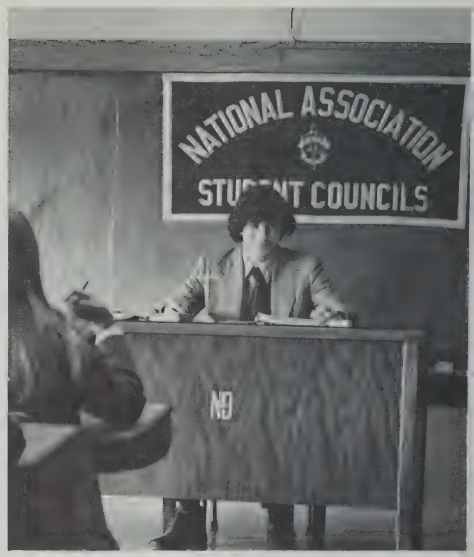
What is Mr. Munroe, school janitor, hiding behind his back? He'll never tell!

"Try it; you'll like it," exclaims Mrs. Cyr.

Activities

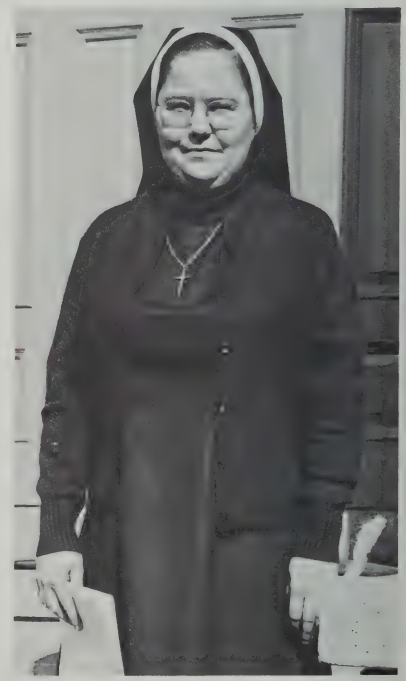
Student Council

Student Council Officers: Geraldine Gagne, Secretary; Stephen Capuccio, President; William Smith, Vice-President; Donna McClary, Treasurer; and Sr. Beatrice Gerard, Moderator.



Mr. President calls the meeting to order.

The Student Council hosts a coffee hour to break the "first-day-of-school ice".



Student Council moderator, Sr. Beatrice Gerard is always on the go.

Student Council representatives check on the time of the next meeting.

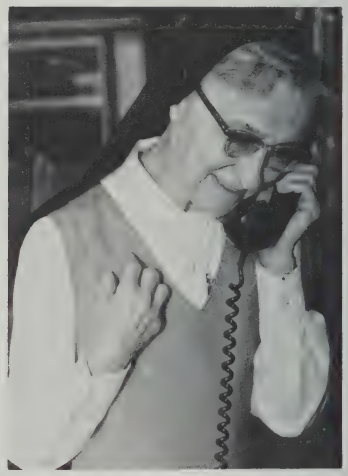
What does the Handbook say about it?

Sr. Adrienne Colette makes it official.

French Club

With the help of Sr. Roseanna the French Club officers plan the agenda of the next morning.

Debbie Walsh, Corinne Cyr, and Eileen Landry prepare a presentation on travel.



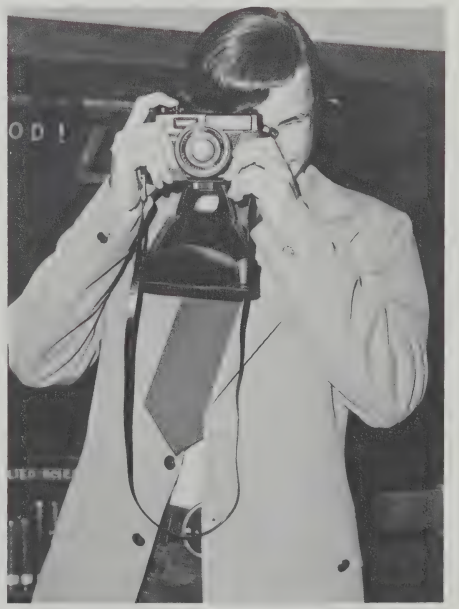
Sr. Roseanna takes a few minutes to chat on the phone.

Leslie Rinaldo presents an oral composition to the French Club members.

Vesuvius

The Vesuvius Staff poses for their official photograph.

Putting out a newspaper is hard work, as Debbie and Michelle will gladly testify.



The worm turns; Kenny Rochon is caught with his camera by the Stella Maris photographer.

Homecoming

Eddie Hairston shows the Alumni what N.D. can do.

It looks like the game is off to a good start.

The Alumni can't seem to keep Bob Pidgeon from stealing the ball.

Rival captains shake hands.

The cheerleaders are full of spirit even after the game is over.

John Moore, Diane Poirier, and Therese Boulanger look over the '71 Stella Maris and talk about the "good old days" at N.D.

Here we have the 1971 Homecoming King and Queen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Viglione.

The Alumnae cheerleaders have a definite style of their own.

Cake Decorating

Mrs. Paul Comeau teaches the girls the fine art of cake decorating.

Mrs. Comeau is giving Theresa a few inside tips.

"This is what yours should look like."

Everyone seems to be catching on fast.

Retreat

Everyone is eager to begin.

The Sophomores leave for a tour of Marathon House.

It's back to the bus and home.

All the comforts of home.

"Hey, where are you going? The Marathon House is that way!"

Winterfest

It's difficult to tell the teachers from the students.

Winterfest is the highlight of the year.

Everyone sits this one out.

May I have this dance?

Eddie seems to be a bit tall for Ingrid, but she does not seem to mind.

Walter eyes the pretty young ladies.

The Medford Folk singers entertained during intermission.

A break in the action.

Class Trip

The Capitol was one of the many sites the seniors visited in Washington.

Fr. Arsenault celebrates Mass at the Shrine.

And it was walk, walk, walk!!

The names Philadelphia and Franklin are inseparable.

No one could watch the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and remain unaffected.

No, Father, I don't think they will let you take the Liberty Bell to Notre Dame.

The eternal flame burns steadily at the tomb of John F. Kennedy.

The magnificent mosaics at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception impressed everyone

Is it a gift shop that is attracting all the girls?

The seniors enjoy breakfast with Congressman "Tip" O'Neil.

What's going on there, Ellen?

Maureen, Linda, and Marianne appear to be suffering from the tourists' complaint — sore feet!

The "Big Three" are in conference.

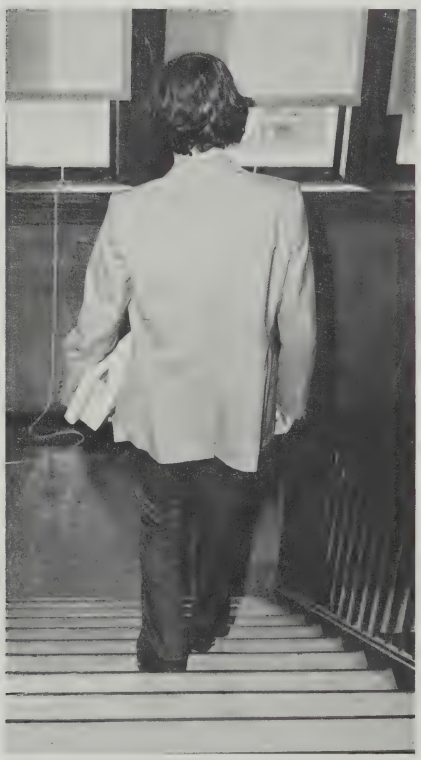
Marianne seems to be making new friends.

Everyone wants a silver dollar!

It is difficult to tell the dummies from the real people.

Anyone for swimming?

Potpourri



Stella Maris

Pictures, pictures everywhere!!

Rick Maggio, Stella Maris photographer, is caught in the act.

"Peggy, what are you doing?"

Peggy and Linda check the picture shooting schedule.

The yearbook display attracts interested spectators.

Thanks to Jean, Terri, Jackie, and Donna, the yearbook drive was a huge success.

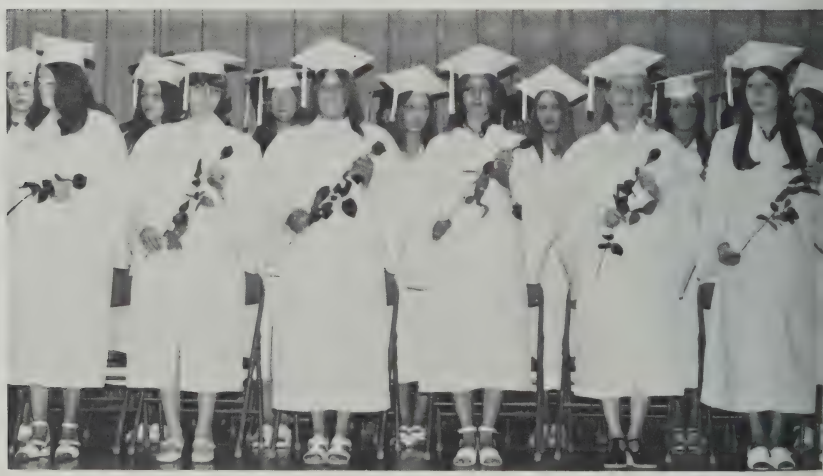
Something has caught Linda's eye.

Class Night

Robert Desharnais, Valedictorian, receives the trophy for general excellence.

"Is my cap straight?"

It was a night to remember.



Graduation

Here come the graduates!

Congratulations!

"It's mine at last!"

Athletics

N.D.'s 1971-1972 Cheerleaders: (front row) Kelley Earle, mascot; (second row) Janet Melanson, Marianne McNeill, co-captain, Colette Allard, captain, Theresa Pessotti; (back row) Linda Melanson, Geraldine Gagne, Eugenia Pinksen, Leslie Rinaldo, Cynthia Halford, and Shirley O'Shea.

Cheerleaders

"Go, Cavaliers, go!!"

She flies through the air with the greatest of ease.

Are you ready?

"We don't mess around."

I'm glad they know what they are doing.

Basketball

Get out there and win!

Up, up and away!

Steve Capuccio snatches the ball and leaves his opponents stunned.

Bob Pidgeon is N. D.'s high jumper.

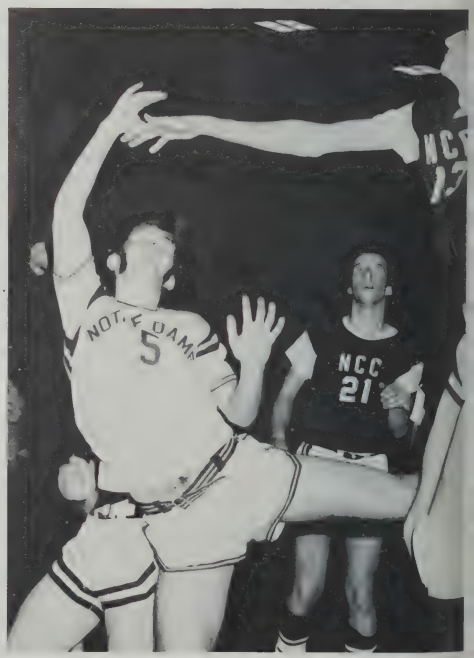
"Get that ball and shoot!"

Eddie Hairston displays his fancy dribbling.

N.C.C.'s number 13 may be tall, but nobody can stop Billy Savini.

Concentration!

The score and time keepers watch and count.



Could this be "Big Joe"?

KEEFE FUNERAL HOME

CHARLES D. KEEFE

2175 Massachusetts Avenue

Cambridge, Massachusetts

In Memory of

Doctor Margaret Brusch

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. Your High School diploma is all the experience you need. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone An equal opportunity employer

You're about to take a giant step.

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank everyone who helped the yearbook staff prepare the 1972 Stella Maris. Without their cooperation this book would not have been possible. We want to express our gratitude in particular to Richard Maggio, our photographer, and the entire staff of Vantine Studios, to our patrons and advertisers, to the representatives of the Portland Lithograph Company, and to Sr. Jacqueline, yearbook advisor.

Sincerely
